Character Name:

Captain Heat

Character Bio:

“I’m the Hottest Superhero”

Captain Heat is the hottest superhero who believes in sustainability and recycles heat when he creates his heat balls from geothermal heat. The heat balls operate like boomerangs that return to him after the job is done. When Captain Heat dances in one spot fast, he creates heat balls that come from his shoes. These heat balls can be used to defeat enemies (Air and water pollution) by using the heat balls to purify these elements when he throws them. After he unleashes his heat balls and they defeat the enemies, they return to Captain Heat where they can be used for another day or battle. He has orange fiery-flame styled-hair, cool brown shades, wears a green fitting leotard with an orange belt bearing the letter H for Captain Heat. His boots are a darker shade of green with orange straps that represents where the heat balls. come from.
